

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: During this unprecedented and rapidly changing time, healthcare and essential service workers are on the front lines keeping our communities moving, caring for the sick, providing essential services and ensuring public safety; and

WHEREAS: In recognition of the extraordinary measures being taken by health care and essential service workers, we would like to recognize these workers and thank them for their sacrifice and care; and

WHEREAS: At 7:00 pm each evening, City of Port Coquitlam residents are encouraged to step out on their balconies, patios, rooftops, or sidewalks to erupt in cheers and applause to salute the City's hard-working health care and essential service workers on the frontlines.

NOW THEREFORE: I, Brad West, Mayor of the Corporation of the City of Port Coquitlam,

DO HEREBY PROCLAIM

April 2020 as

“Health Care and Essential Service Workers Appreciation Month”
